LAKETOWN WHARF RESORT
COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

CHARLES DONOVAN SMITH; CLARA Y. PEASE; JOHN P. MILLER, JR.; EMERALD VIEW ASSOCIATION MANAGEMENT, LLC; ZACKARY LEE SHEWMAKER; and TERRI LYNN LESTER, Defendants.

Case No. 2025-1311-CA

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN P. MILLER, JR.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, personally appeared John P. Miller, Jr., who, after being first duly sworn, states as follows:

1. My name is John P. Miller, Jr. I have personal knowledge of the matters stated in this Affidavit.

2. I was the Community Association Manager (CAM) for Laketown Wharf Resort Community Association, Inc. (the "Association") while working for Emerald View Association Management, LLC, including at the time of the 2021 election and voting process concerning the Association's acquisition of the Club Property. After Emerald View ceased serving as the Association's management company, I continued as the Association's CAM while working for GrandManors until December 2023.

3. The voting process included the special members' meeting on November 29, 2021, its reconvened session on December 3, 2021, and the resumed membership session on December 24, 2021, for certification of the vote and adjournment.

4. In that capacity, I oversaw the election and voting process together with John P. Townsend, counsel for the Association. I was in charge of keeping the voting records for the Association and kept them in the ordinary course of the Association's business.

5. The voting records attached as Exhibit A, comprising the voting-record files identified as A-1 through A-17 in the accompanying index, are the records of the Association's 2021 election and voting process described above. I recognize these records from my work as the Association's CAM.

6. The records attached as Exhibit A, comprising the voting-record files identified as A-1 through A-17 in the accompanying index, are true and correct copies of the voting records kept in the ordinary course of the Association's business. They are what they purport to be.

7. The records are organized in the accompanying index as affirmative electronic votes (A-1 through A-8), affirmative proxy votes (A-9 through A-12), opposed electronic votes (A-13), opposed proxy votes (A-14), records labeled "Rescinded Votes / Revoted" (A-15), records labeled "Voted Yes 2 times but only counted 1 time" (A-16), and the unit-by-unit voting spreadsheet (A-17).

8. The spreadsheet identified as A-17 lists units and columns for votes received, votes in favor, opposed votes, electronic votes and paper votes. Its last page records totals of 571 votes received, 541 in favor, 30 opposed, 494 electronic votes and 77 paper votes. This paragraph identifies the totals shown on that document; it does not state that I performed a separate recount for this Affidavit.

9. The records in A-17 state that 534 affirmative votes were needed to pass. The totals recorded in A-17 are 571 votes received, of which 541 were in favor and 30 were opposed. The measure passed with 541 affirmative votes, seven more than the 534 affirmative votes needed.

10. In overseeing that election and voting process, I worked hand in hand with John P. Townsend, counsel for the Association.

11. In administering the election and voting process, I acted only as instructed by Mr. Townsend and did only what he instructed me to do.

12. At the time of the election and vote, upon advice of the Association's counsel, all records concerning the election and vote were printed, clearly labeled, and stored on the property in office 231.

13. When I was replaced as the Association's CAM, I turned all of those records over to Roger Edwards at GrandManors. Mr. Edwards was well aware of the records and other materials in the Association's possession.

14. Having printed, labeled, stored, and turned over those records as described above, I know of no reason the Association should not have access to them.

15. I make this Affidavit to identify and authenticate the Association's voting records and to describe my role and the direction I received from Association counsel in connection with the 2021 election and voting process addressed in the Moving Defendants' motion for sanctions.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.
